THE ANDREW MCDONOUGH SCHOOL VISIT 'STORY TELLING EXTRAVAGANZA'

Andrew McDonough is the author and illustrator of the popular Lost Sheep children's books. These stories are used by schools and churches around the world. 400 000 books have been sold in Australia. Andrew grew up in country South Australia where the school teachers were tough. When kids mucked around they weren't made to write fifty words or a hundred lines, but were forced to write stories – pages and pages of stories! But Andrew didn't care, he liked writing stories and he hasn't stopped since. He is currently working on book number thirty six.

What the Staff say...

"Andrew has a wonderful rapport with students of all ages. If you need an author visit to tie in with Book Week or a Christian presenter to do work-shops with the students, then this talented man is worth pursuing. Our students were captured by his enthusiasm and easy-going nature as he shared his love of writing stories, story telling and explained how his journey began as a school boy who loved to draw and the road that it has led too."
Lynn Grosser- Care Coordinator
St John's Lutheran School Eudunda S.A.

What the Kids Say...

"I really enjoyed your visit because you are funny and your drawings are really good." Arabella. Year 5.

What International best selling author Max Lucado has to say about Andrew's stories...

"Fresh, vivid and attention-grabbing. These stories touch the heart and illuminate the mind."
Max Lucado, Bestselling Author.

About Lost Sheep

When Jesus wanted to change lives he told stories. That's what we do at Lost Sheep. Some of our stories are about Jesus, some are by Jesus, but all of them point to Jesus. We take the spirituality of children seriously but also believe the gospel is fun. Our calling is to produce story telling resources that reflect the heart of Jesus. Our focus is on children and all those working to build faith in kids around the world. Our desire is that parents, teachers, pastors & children's workers will use these resources to develop the faith of kids.

About Andrew McDonough
